

AOA
AUSTRALIAN
ORTHOPAEDIC
ASSOCIATION

AOA ACCREDITED FELLOWSHIP WEBSITE SUMMARY

TITLE OF FELLOWSHIP	SHOULDER, ELBOW AND KNEE SPORTS AND ARTHROPLASTY FELLOWSHIP (NSW1121)
Chief supervisor	Dr Jonathan Herald, FRACS FAOrthA
About Dr Herald 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dr Jonathan Herald is a City, Strathfield, Bankstown and Campbelltown-Private based orthopaedic surgeon who specialises in shoulder, knee and elbow conditions as well as all-limb Work Cover orthopaedic injuries. • He has 10 years + surgical experience and has treated some of Australia's highest profile athletes in the fields of swimming, soccer, NRL, Rugby and cricket. • In 2017 he successfully performed a new surgical treatment at Campbelltown Private Hospital for previously irreparable rotator cuff tears. • A passionate advocate of physiotherapy, (both his parents were physiotherapists), Dr Herald uses the Neer Protocol, an accelerated recovery exercise program after shoulder surgery. • He also uses the Shelbourne Return to athletics after ACL surgery, and has demonstrated the technique with former Australian Rugby Union Centre Adam Ashley Cooper. • In 2018, Herald was a medical commentator in the Australian Financial Review, discussing the new age of patient-centric medicine and he is widely published in medical journals around the world. • Dr Herald is a No Gap Surgeon for privately covered pensioners.
Education	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dr Herald graduated from Sydney Technical High School in 1989; completed his Bachelor of Medicine Surgery at The University of Sydney in 1996 and his Masters of Sports Medicine at the University of NSW in 2000. • He further trained in shoulder surgery at Mt Sinai School of Medicine New York and in elbow surgery with Professor Shawn O'Driscoll at The Mayo Clinic. • He has been an examiner for the Royal Australasian College of Surgeons, a Guest Reviewer for the British Medical Journal (orthopaedic) and Guest editor of The Asian Journal of Arthroscopy in 2017.
Awards	1989 Engineering Science Prize, 1st place national year, Sydney Technical High School 1994 Top Scoring Student, Medical Defence Union Elective Bursaries Competition 1996 Odbbins Prize 1st Place, Surgical Grand Rounds, Royal Prince Alfred Hospital Sydney
Recent Publications	Bhatty SM, Herald J A, Arthroscopic Stabilisation Techniques for Anterior Shoulder instability. Asian Journal of Arthroscopy. 2 (1): , 2017 Jan – April. Kakatkar S, Herald J A, Patho-anatomy and Patho-mechanics of glenohumeral instability. Asian Journal of Arthroscopy. 2 (1): , 2017 Jan – April Herald J A, Kakatkar S. Tibial Fixation. In: Tapasvi S, Patil S, Shekhar A Eds. Techniques in ACL Surgery. 1st Edn. Jaypee Brothers, 2017. Herald J A, Kakatkar S. Non-surgical and Surgical Management of the Lateral Patellar Compression Syndrome. In: Tapasvi S, Eds. Patellofemoral Instability. 1 st Edn. Jaypee Brothers, p97-110, 2016. Herald J A, Kakatkar S. Synthetic Grafts in Anterior Cruciate Ligament Reconstruction. Asian Journal of Arthroscopy. 1(1);16-19, 2016 April – June. Klug RA, Herald J A, Hausmann MR. Minimally Invasive Approaches for Complex Elbow Trauma In: Scuderi GR, Tria AJ Eds. Minimally Invasive Surgery in Orthopedics. 2nd Ed. New York: Springer, 2015.

Contact details	Address	Orthopaedic Clinic Sydney Suite 1606/109 Pitt Street Sydney NSW 2000
	Phone	+61 2 9233 3946
	Fax	+61 2 9232 5299
	Email	info@orthoclinic.com.au
	Website	orthoclinic.com.au
Length	12 Months
Stipend	Approximately AU $70,000 per 12 months
Institutions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • St Luke's Care Hospital • Strathfield Private Hospital • Campbelltown Private Hospital
Educational goals and characteristics	The fellowship is principally concerned with the teaching of orthopaedic aspects of shoulder, elbow and knee surgery. Experience in this area includes arthroscopic reconstruction and joint replacement. The fellowship involves working at St Lukes Care Hospital Sydney, Strathfield Private Hospital, and Campbelltown Private Hospital with other orthopaedic surgeons and related disciplines. The fellowship involves attending department x-ray and clinical meetings, outpatient work, journal clubs, preparation for operations, and, with assistance, consulting at orthoclinic. The fellow develops surgical experience through private assisting and supervised operating. The fellow develops full responsibility for surgery at approximately one operating list per fortnight. The fellow is exposed to approximately 20 surgical procedures per week. Research is an integral part of the fellowship and clinical based research projects are ongoing at the clinic. Prospective applicants should aspire to sub-specialist shoulder, elbow and knee surgery.
Requirements/ criteria	Applicants must have completed their training in orthopaedic surgery. Applicants must hold or be eligible to hold a current certificate of registration to practice medicine in the state of New South Wales, Australia. Applicants must provide their own medical practice indemnity insurance. As this is a clinical fellowship, good internship skill and English language are required. IELTS pass of 7 in all four components is mandatory.
How to Apply	Applications, including a current curriculum vitae and the names and email addresses of three referees should be sent to: Kelly Apps Practice Manager Orthopaedic Clinic Sydney Suite 1606/ 109 Pitt St Sydney NSW 2000 info@orthoclinic.com.au

NO GAP SURGERY- PRIVATELY COVERED AGED PENSIONERS

SHOULDER, ELBOW, KNEE SPECIALIST

WORK COVER SPECIALIST-URGENT APPOINTMENTS